“ Anedra was always one of the most caring, genuine and helpful people that God blessed the world with. When I was busy traveling, she would randomly message me to see how our family was doing or reach out to get Chevine and I involved in activities in the city for young professionals. She will always be in our hearts and we strive to carry on her light through the future.

“Where do we go from here without her? Such a shock. We all need to live by her example. She was so genuine and gorgeous, with a beautiful smile. I don't think she had any idea how much she was truly loved. My heart is broken but I know we'll see her on the other side and I know she is wearing those "heels" well on the streets of gold! There's such a sad void in our office. She will always live in our hearts. Love You Anedra. Prayers & Condolences to her family!

“ It is written that Grief is the price we pay for love. Anedra was loved by so many near and far. I met her through one of her best friend's Nicole almost 10 years ago. It touched me how strong their friendship was. It was evident they had become sisters. Her presence and beauty made a lasting memory. I truly pray for peace for her family and her many friends. God Bless her village.

“ Blessed are those which die in Lord. That they may rest from their Labors, and their works do follow them.

My heart is heavy at the passing of Anedra. However, I know she is with the Lord. What a beauty she was inside out. Anedra will truly be missed. God bless her family.

“ I worked with Anedra and my heart is broken. She was my mentor, fellow group member and we lived not too far from one another. Anedra has a way of lighting up a room with her vibrant smile and personality. Not to mention she was gorgeous. I will miss her presence and her warmth and her beauty, and my prayers go out to her family and to my fellow coworkers who are left to mourn her passing and now have to figure out how to fill the gaping void that her passing has created. What gives me strength is that I believe that she is now with the Lord and in a wonderful place filled with unimaginable beauty and joy and peace, a place where there is no more suffering, only Love and wonder. And one day, we will see her again. So fly with the angels Anedra and rest in Paradise. And for the rest of us who remain, may God comfort and heal the broken-hearted.

Forever,
Donna J.

“ Anedra was my step sister. We were not close but I would see her often on most holidays at Her Fathers house. She always carried herself like a Woman should. We often would exchange smiles and just enjoy each others company. She will be greatly missed.
