“ Eric, dear cousin, and to all our extended Atlanta family. I know there are no words that can ease your pain, but please know that your NC family is thinking of you. As you navigate the grief process, may the music you hear that makes you think of her and the photos of cherished memories you see, bring you some comfort.

With love.

“ I’ve had the honor of being in “Angie’s” life as her niece, Karnesha Jackson Ford. I have known her all of my life as “family”. I will always remember her as a sweet, petite, and kind spirit. She always embraced me when our families came together. My condolences to her husband, children, and Buist Williamson family during this time.

“ My heart literally dropped when I received the news of Angela's transition. We had become friends at church. We sat by each other and checked in when one of us did not show up that Sunday. I remember when she joined Antioch Lithonia Missionary Baptist Church about a Year or more ago. We exchanged numbers the following Sunday and immediate connected. Sweet soul. I already miss you RIP my friend. Knowing that I will not be seeing you on Sunday hurts but knowing that you loved the Lord gives me comfort. My condolences to her Family. Truly missing you Pattie.
