

Angelia Elizabeth Broughton

June 10, 1958 - September 1, 2024

Angelia Elizabeth Broughton, affectionately known as "Toni," was born on June 10, 1958, in Lawrenceville, Georgia. She passed away peacefully on September 1, 2024, in Stone Mountain, Georgia.

Angelia was a vibrant spirit, always full of life and known for her warm heart. She had a passion for cooking and often delighted family and friends with her soul food creations. Her love for horror movies was unmatched, making her the go-to person for movie nights filled with thrilling stories. She found joy in the smooth sounds of K-Ci & JoJo and the timeless melodies of Al Green, reflecting her deep appreciation for music.

Angelia is survived by her two sons, Raymond Broughton Sr., and Marco Broughton, as well as her beloved grandchildren, Tayonna Broughton and Raymond Broughton Jr. She is also mourned by her siblings: Patricia Broughton, Sylvia Davis, Charlie Robert Broughton, Audrey Broughton, and Marcia Maddox-Gantt.

Throughout her life, Angelia touched the hearts of many in her community. She was known for her generosity, often feeding the neighborhood and offering heartfelt advice to those in need. Her presence will be dearly missed, but her legacy of love and kindness will continue to inspire those who knew her. Angelia is always loved and will be remembered fondly by all who were fortunate to have her in their lives.
