“ Dear Thornwell Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “ May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ Angie,

From the moment we met in 2015 to do my wedding printing, I knew we would had a deep connection. We talked for hours every time we met up about many things, and I felt we were kindred spirit. I was so honored and inspired after leaving your 50th bday party. You looked amazing and was coming into the ANGIE that I knew you could be. You were investing more time in your own brand, business and YOU! I am still shocked that I will no longer be able to text, call or see you. I am going to miss you, but I will never forget the imprint that you made on my life. My husband thought you were so kind and sweet. He was in total disbelief of the short time you were here. You are truly going to be missed.

Love you, Rasheedah Carter Sams

“ Angie, we were just communicating last Wednesday. Angie, we just celebrated your 50th birthday. What happened sis? God was sitting around and needed to pick the most beautiful angel he could find at the moment and you were chosen. I am so glad to have called you friend, sister and woman of God. I will miss you. Until we meet again...
