“ The Robins Officers Club was setting up for an off premise function at Stathams Landing Gold Club. I usually take the led on these type of events, mainly because Mr. Martinez patience is not that good when come to set-ups because the team was made up of young people..he hated having to repeat his self more than once...Anyway on this event we needed to load one hundred and fifty chairs to bring back to the Club...There was one stack left to be loaded on the truck and Mr Martinez instructed one of the young employees to bring the chairs to the truck quickly and not to play around with anyone...It should have taken the employee about three minute to get to the truck, about ten minutes later the employee reach the truck(Smile) Mr Martinez was steaming, he asked the young employee "what took you so long" the young employee stated "I went around the other side of the Club I could see how it look" In a playful demonstration of frustration Mr Martinez put the young employee in a choke hold.. It scared the young person straight,,, (smile)..Mr Martinez was a mild manner and easy going Boss and you always knew where you stood with him.....I cannot think on employee that work at the Officers who spoke a discouraging word about him during my time working for him!! So as long as there are no young angels he will be responsible for all is well..Lol..Rest in Peace Mr Martinez....
