“ So very sorry for your loss. Mrs. Johnson was a kind and caring person. As a school attendant when I was in elementary school and later as my neighbor in DORIE MILLER. Even coming to see my shows once she moved to Georgia. R.I.P. and my prayers are always with the family.
I pray my flowers got there in time. 🙏

“Denise, Gregory, Christian and Family. Our prayers, and thoughts are with you all during these difficult times. We are remembering your wonderful mother, our beautiful cousin, who touched so many lives in so many ways. What an amazing women, who lived a remarkable life to the fullest. Know, we share with you in the celebration of life of our mover and shaker, who knew how to get things done and make things happen. Although we are unable to be there with you, our arms are wrapped around you, surrounding you with love, offering prayers and encouragement of comfort and healing, as you mourn Mom’s transition. We love you and send our deepest condolences, as we remember our beloved Angelyn (Cuz Bootsy). Love you Dwight Peavy and Family.
