“ To the Family of Nikki Harris...To her mother and father, thank you for bringing a wonderful person to life. Although I have known her briefly her presence on the world wide web will deeply be missed. Her conversations have been filled with laughter and encouragement and her writings have been thoughtful and educating. That is how I knew her and how I remember her. I understand how grief can ebb and flow. But please remember to hold on to what you know is true. I pray that this devastation does not leave you bitter or angry but allows you to remain faithful and continue to put your trust in HIM. He is still Lord, will always be LORD, and He shall forever be LORD of all, in all, through all, and above all! I thank HIM in advance for restoring your soul from this spirit of heaviness, to remember that the joy of the LORD is your strength and its through Him that you will have perfect peace.

“ We offer sincere condolences and encouragement from God's Word. Jesus said: Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me. (John 14:1). God's Word assures us that: The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29). God always keeps his promises!

“ Nikki was such a great and beautiful lady. I remember her from high school at Druid Hills and how she took the time to always cheer me up and also taught me to be proud of my Spanish culture and who I am. She impacted my life with her wisdom. I send my condolences to the family and her friends. She will be deeply missed.

“ To the family of Ms. Anika (Nikki) Harris. I know it may be hard now, but she suffers no more, no more pain, no more doctor visits, no more tears, peace alas.....Ms. Nikki I say to you, rest from your pain in your mansion in the sky, God asked for a beautiful Angel Here I Am was her reply. God saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb, So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered, Peace Be Thine

“ To the Harris Family, I would like to offer my condolences. My memories of her from Druid Hills where that she was very high spirited and outgoing and a friend to many. 20 years later, she was the same person with even better wit that would truly brighten my day. What a gift it was to know her.

“ Nikki, From the first day our paths crossed I knew there was something special about you. You captivated me with your words, intrigued me with your opinions and impressed me with your passion. Our mutual love of music and sports made us quick friends. Our conversations often enlightened and educated me, but it will be our last conversation that I will always remember. With everything that was going on with you, you still found time to motivate, inspire and encourage me as I dealt with my own struggles this year. To me, that says the most about who you are and that's what I'll remember most about you. Hope God has a pool hall in Heaven because you still owe me a game when I get there.
