“ My sweet cousin, you will surely be missed! You radiated faith, love and long suffering, from my earliest memories of you. I vividly remember, you sending me monies my Freshman year of college, out of love and kindness. You have been a blessing to everyone that has known you. Your legacy will leave an indelible impact on those that were blessed to have known you. Praise Yahuah Elohaynu.

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of Elohiym: Not of works, lest any many should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Mashiach Yahusha unto good works, with Elohiym has before ordained that we should walk in them.

Eph'siym (Ephesians) 2: 8-10

“ Mrs. Colbert was an inspiration and light to all she encountered. Such a bright smile and beautiful heart. She shared her love for education with me and her many years of experience helped me my first year in education. Such a loss but Heaven gained her so I rejoice in knowing that.

Kierra, you and Aniyah are in my sincere prayers along with the rest of your family and those that knew and loved your mom.

Rest well, Colbert! 💔

“ I knew you before Porterdale. You were a key factor in me getting my education degree. You made that year of college so much lighter, literally and figuratively. Your presence was always peace. I don't think I ever saw you angry no matter what. Coming to the Dale and seeing you I knew I would be ok. You will truly be missed beyond words. Rest well!!!!

Anita you have always been a friend and a sister to me. You were a friend because we shared our hearts with each other without being judged. A sister because you've always had my back, you were honest, helpful and kind. I will truly miss you, Anita. Rest in power. My sympathy to Kierra, granddaughter, and the extended family. 🕊️💕🙏

“ We laughed, we fussed, oh, did we fuss, but most of all, we loved. Bossy? Maybe. Smart? Absolutely. No, you weren’t just bossy, you were direct, and we loved you for it. You were the kind of friend who showed up, stood strong, and spoke truth. Alex, Coco, and I will miss you deeply, your fire, your wit, your heart. This world feels quieter without you, but your echo will never fade. Rest well, my friend. Family please accept my deepest condolences, I will keep you in my prayers and thoughts. Colbert was a rare gem💔🙏😊
