“ To know her was to love her. I was a friend of Ann Marie at Miami Edison Sr High class of 1995. I know that God is to wise to make a mistake and I know that she is looking down upon us right now. To the family I wish to offer deepest sympathy and while nothing will replace her sweet and gentle spirit know that I am praying for your strength and that God comforts you and her children as only he can.

“ Ann Marie Robinson was a greatly esteemed member of the faculty at Perimeter College. She gave selflessly of her time and talents. She was an innovative instructor in the classroom and online. She inspired her students to learn and succeed. Every year she represented her campus and discipline on multiple committees. She was a very capable administrator. In all she did she was principled, competent and kind. The sudden passing of Ann Marie and her husband gives rise to great sadness and grief. May the Holy Comforter come to all who mourn and bring the peace that passes all understanding.
