“ I am devastated and I know her family really is. I moved back to Cleveland and we still kept in touch but I hadn't tt Ms Anne in a second .Now finally in the process of moving back to Atlanta and yesterday me and my son, Nasir went to Stonecrest only to find out she passed, I'm praying for Peanut. Lisa and all of your babies. This is Chelsea. We did a lot together. When I lived here, I joined her church, too! God bless!!!!

“ We would like to extend our condolences to the family. It's never easy saying goodbye to a love one. The pain of loss can be unbearable. Our creator promises that one day this pain will be a memory. May you find comfort in this promise.

To the family of Mrs. Ann our deepest sympathy. I going to miss seeing her walking around our complex. Mrs. Ann you were the first person I met 12 years ago. She was so kind and loving to me and my son. She loved praising God and always gave Him the Glory. Oh how I'ma miss you, my friend, my buddy, my Mom away from home Mom. She was a very loving person kind-hearted and we called her Mizz Divas she would be dressed from head to toe with her matching purse. Every one knew her of her fashion flashy attire I always tell her when I get grown I'ma dressed like her . She was always concern about others and made sure if you have ate. She loved everybody she never met a stranger. Really gonna miss you my buddy my friends .

Anna Gray, what can I say, when almighty God created you He broke the mode. I love you, I will miss you. Always dressed to a T no matter where she went. Knew how to spend her money, a kind loving spirit. She always was praising her God.
