“To the Family: I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God's Word promises a future when "death will be no more and He will make all things new." (Revelation 21:3-5). When Jesus was on the earth, God empowered him to raise up dead ones. Jesus' words recorded at John 11:25 assure us: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." We can put complete trust in these promises....God is faithful and "His Word is truth." (John 17:17).

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Anna Mae Vickers. To lose someone in death is an experience we can never truly experience we can never truly be prepared for. The loss a void in our lives that can never be filled. I have found at times such as these that the words from our Heavenly Father can be a source of encouragement. He tells us at both Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29 that he intends to resurrect our loved ones. We will be given the opportunity to with the welcome them back. What a joyous occasion that will be. We will not be welcoming them back to an Earth filled with problems and issues they faced in the past but as Revelation 21:3,4 says, "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a wonderful future for our deceased loved ones to look forward to. I truly hope the words and promises from our Creator, Jehovah, will sustain you and give you the strength you need to get through this difficult time.
