“ I send my warmest condolences to the family. I am pretty sure that nobody likes events such as these, but there will be a time where there will be no more funerals nor deaths but eternal life in a paradise earth as mentioned in Revelations 21:4.

“ I am sorry for your loss and I offer heartfelt condolences. Please keep in mind that God will sustain you (Psalms 55:22) as you look ahead to the fulfillment of his promise to restore dead loved ones to life. His Word assures us...The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. ~John 5:28,29.

“ To the family: When I met Anne and Charles last spring, it changed my life. Along with a host of other patients, I came to look forward to seeing them every day. I knew that Charles would make us laugh and forget, for a few minutes, that we were ill. When Charles told his stories, I would look at Ann and we would burst out laughing until my stomach hurt. I will never forget those moments and Anne's sweet and loving smiles. I will keep you in my prayers, Marge

“ We are so sad of the passing of Anne Bone. She has been an extended family member since before I was born. I have so many fond memories of her and her family throughout the past 35 years of my life. She was always very warm and welcoming, opening up her home and family values with us. I remember spending summers at The Bones' house and looking forward to those delicious waffles and sausage patties that were a staple in her home and they would wake us all up in the morning with smiles on our faces. She always treated me like one of the family and always kept it real. I remember when they lived in Virginia and all the fun we would have playing outside in the blazing hot summer. And I remember through the years Anne teaching me and Gia how to shop like it was nobodys business! I think she could have taught a class... but most of all I remember how she was always so upbeat, funny and sharp whitted and loved by everyone who knew her... She will be missed and never forgotten and will always live on in our fondest memories... We love you Anne!!! xxooWith Love & Sympathy The Martell-Sgro FamilyClorisa, Rocco & Sophia
