“ Annette Diva Jones is and always will be the light of my life. She selflessly puts others before her constantly. I know because everything that happened to success wise was always directly linked to her. But for the ones who doesn't know that side of her allow me to open a page from our friendship.

She would stay up all night from 12am to 5 or 6am with me because she knew I was in pain and she made sure I knew I was never alone. That's why every day I would make sure she laugh out loud. It was very important to me. For many reasons but none sticking out more then she deserves to smile every day. She knew every secret and every weakness. Why because I could trust her with my life. As she could me with her life. If you have someone who is a special light in your life you make sure you light up their world as if it was for you.. because thats what she did. She lived her life knowing that whenever she departed she would have a home in the kingdom of God.

Im sad because I lost you but happy heavenly love is surrounding you and the earth pains of life hasn't followed. Rest well.

You will never be replaced or forgotten.

It's been my honor to have you as my sister

Love you eternally
