August 12, 1958 - August 31, 2024

Annie Ruth Arnold, born August 12, 1958, to the late Velma Ligon, peacefully answered the call of her Lord and Savior on the early morning of August 30, 2024. A native of Opelika, Alabama, Annie found her way to Atlanta, Georgia, where she graduated from Smith High School.

Her contributions and uplifting presence made a lasting impression on all who had the pleasure of working with her. A passionate traveler, Annie relished the opportunity to explore new destinations with her family, particularly enjoying the spirited adventures with her beloved 'EGW' (Elderly Gone Wild) sisters.

She leaves behind her devoted partner, Arther Ruban, whose presence in her life was a source of great joy and comfort. The memories of their time together will be deeply treasured by all who know them.

Annie is survived by Willie and Juanita Patterson.
