“ May the God of all comfort continue to strengthen you all as you keep in mind...God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily to be found during distresses. (Psalm 46:1). His Word assures us...Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. (Isaiah 26:19). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Consider Isaiah 55:11 and Revelation 21:3-5

“ I have countless memories of walking into Mimi's house and you were always there to greet me with your infectious smile, a big grin, and an ever bigger hug and the best sweet tea around. You taught me so much about kindness and joy, and I know I'm not the only one.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ To all of Anne's family, I want to express my condolences and offer my prayers that you will be comforted in during this time of loss. I thank you for letting Anne be part of our family (the Vaughan family) as well. She was kind and generous with her time and talents. She had an infectious smile and laugh and will be greatly missed. She has been a precious gift in our lives.

“ I'm very sorry & heartbroken to hear of the loss of Ann. Her smile, laugh & kindness were contagious to be around. She loved the Vaughans so well & always made sure we knew it. We felt fortunate to be able to call Ann a member of the Vaughan family as well.
