“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share an encouraging thought from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." There is a real hope of being reunited with your dead loved ones.—John 5:28, 29. Jehovah hates death; he views it as an enemy. (1 Corinthians 15:26) He has a longing to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He yearns to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again.—Job 14:14,15. For additional comfort please visit www.jw.org.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family and the friends of Ms. Annie Mae Jones. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief, but you can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15; John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow, you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ *To the Family:
May you all gain comfort as you keep in mind... "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). When Jesus was on the earth, God empowered him to raise up dead ones, giving evidence of what he will do on a global scale in the future. Jesus confirmed his role in the provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Remember... God always keeps his promises! (Joshua 23:14).*
