There are places in the heart reserved, especially for those most

I have so many loving memories of Aunt Hun. She had a beautiful spirit and taught us the true meaning of love, joy, and family. I loved when Aunt Hun and her sisters would sing at the family reunions. My grandmother (Adline) was one of the sisters. The sisters were the life of the party. Aunt Hun will be deeply missed. My deepest condolences to Sylvia and the entire family. Family is forever. God's love is eternal.

*Sincerely,

“ I can remember Ms Ann Sylvia, Gary and myself wer Returning to my home from a doctor's appointment that Sylvia has so graciously offer to take us to. We were all talking and laughing so hard, until we were crying from the laughter 😭 we just happen to look up saw a sign, and we then realized that we were getting ready to enter into another State other than Georgia were we all lived. We finally found our way back had lunch and laughed some more.
Precious moments spend with Ms Ann on many days she is a sweet and beautiful spirit. I am glad she was a part of my life. 🙏❤️
