“ Although I didn't know Annie Thompson personally, as a concerned reader I would like to offer my sincere condolences to the family. May you be comforted by your loving memories, family, and close friends. Know that our Heavenly Father Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) is near to us in our times of distress. (Psalms 34:18) The Bible assures us a time when sickness and death will be done away with, (Revelations 21:4 Isaiah 33:24) and a time when our loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (Acts 24:15 , John 5:28,29) Our Heavenly Father will grant us the mental peace we need (Phillipians 4:7) when we draw close to him in prayer. (James 4:8) May this scriptural comfort soothe your heart until these promises are fulfilled.

“ Dear Tony and family,
Our family sends its sympathy and love to you on the loss of our dear cousin Ann. We know the path you will walk in losing a dear and devoted mother all too well, as we walk that path still. Know that we are here for you and that we are holding you in our thoughts and prayers as you face these difficult days ahead, and the days beyond without her smiling and loving presence in your midst. It is hard to imagine the world without her but the good will that she so generously put out into the world will always serve to keep her in our hearts and memory.

“ Prayers go out to the family of Annie B. Thompson. It was a joy to have worked with her. She was such a beautiful person and boy did I love her sweet potato pies. She was the best. May God be with the family during these days. May the memories you have of her bring a smile to your face.

“ I want to offer my condolences and to assure you of a wonderful hope that the bible offers. The bible makes the promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15. It also tells us that death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4) You can believe this because God is the creator of life and he is certainly capable of restoring it. He has resurrected people in the past and is eager to do it again. (Job 14:14,15) He will resurrect them here to the earth and you can see them again without having to die. My hope is that you take comfort in these promises and that it can in some way ease your pain at this time

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Ms Annie B Thompson. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ I always viewed my Aunt Ann as someone who would be around forever. It is hard to face the future without Aunt Ann because she was an inspiration to the entire family, especially in time of sickness. She had a remedy for every illness. I know that God will give us the strength to endure this loss.

“ To the Friends and Family of Mrs. Thompson:
I offer condolences and Scriptural encouragement to you all. Please keep in mind that "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). This loving provision gives us the assurance that we can look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus') voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). Continue to "draw close to God and he will draw close to you." (James 4:8).
