“ My condolences to Annie's family and friends for their loss. She had many friends and worked very hard at giving love and service to many. She was my soror, my line sister and my friend. Many years ago, Annie welcomed me & my daughter to the Poconos with her enduring warmth. I am so glad that my mom and I were able to see her in Charlotte last summer. She was a loving soul and I will miss her very much!

“ I offer condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Williams. Many prayers are being offered in your behalf so you're not alone in your bereavement. Keep in mind... "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9).

Jesus confirmed his role in this provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25)

“ To Annie's Family:

Please accept my most sincere sympathy. I am so shocked to hear of your loss, and so sorry that I was not in touch with Annie in recent years. She and I were friends in Greensboro, NC and in NYC and shared many happy times with our Aggie alumni club. You are in my thoughts and prayers, and may you be blessed with peace, comfort and strength at this time.

*Annie,
Even though it was a year ago, it seems like it was just yesterday that we had the nicest conversation on the phone. Sorry I won't be able to speak with you again, but I wish you a peaceful transition into the light as you continue on your journey. May you continue to be blessed.*
