“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please except my deepest condolences. I am hoping that my words may be of some comfort to you and your family. Please take note of the words stated by the faithful man Job at (Job 14:14, 15): “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? . . . You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” This represents God’s earnest longing and desire. Can we really believe the resurrection promise? Yes, there is no doubt that God is both willing and able to fulfill it. What does this mean for you? You have the prospect of being reunited with dead loved ones right here on earth but under very different conditions. “ To the Family:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God made a provision to restore dead ones to life when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in the resurrection when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Isaiah 26:19, Revelation 21:3-5)

“ To the family:

I did not know Mr. Anthony Carr, however I am sorry to hear about your loss. It is so difficult when a love one dies; thankfully comforting words from the scriptures helped me when I loss a loved one. What is even more comforting, to know that one day death will be a thing of the past. (Rev 21: 3 & 4). The scripture indicates that it is possible to be reunited with your dead loved ones in the near future, right on earth, under peaceful, righteous conditions. Then mankind will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. (Psalms 37:10 & 11; John 5:28 & 29). What a marvelous blessing that awaits us.
