“ To the Hall Family: I remember riding the bus with Anthony to Eddy Junior High and then walking to William H. Spencer High School. He always kept us laughing through the Benning Hills neighborhood. I am going to miss Anthony's charm and his infectious smile. I hope the memories will comfort you in the years to come. Kimberly Brown-Boynton Columbus, Georgia

“ Dear Hall Family - My deepest condolences on the loss of Anthony. I met Anthony in 1980 at Eddy Middle School in Columbus, GA. I remember laughing, joking and fighting (yes fighting - 2nd period in Mr. Pippin's class :-)) with Anthony. We saw each other only a few times after graduating high school, but each time I remember those big eyes and him calling me Tears. Please be comforted in knowing that Anthony will be missed by his classmates and friends and our thoughts and prayers are with you. “ To the family of Anthony Hall - Words cannot even begin to express my sorrow. You all are in my prayers. Anthony was such an intelligent guy. He was always friendly and willing to help in any way he could. I give all credit to him for helping me land my first federal government job. I am going to miss him greatly!
