

Anthony Tyrone McCray

November 3, 1970 - November 14, 2020

Anthony Tyrone McCray of Lawrenceville, GA passed away November 14, 2020. Services entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home Lawrenceville Chapel (770) 338-5558.

Anthony T McCray was born to the parents of Gerrell Williams and Geneva McCray on November 3, 1970 in Jacksonville Florida. This is also where he spent his childhood through teenage years and graduated from Sandalwood Senior High in 1990.

Anthony's interest included cooking, music, and he always had a mind for business. He enjoyed art and music and had a special talent with words. He and his best friend even began a rap group. He was the ultimate older brother by being a true leader among his siblings. He loved taking the lead in afternoon household duties which included cooking and serving dinner. He was also good at delegating cleaning and lining his siblings up for bath time and he tucked them into bed. So kids, your aunts and uncles understand. Anthony was always so sweet, caring, and kind that even as a young man he'd even place ponytails in his sisters hair. These were characteristics that contributed to him becoming the wonderful father he truly was. As for the business mind, it started with a 3 man team-He the boss and his 2 brothers. The business was selling candy during the day at school. He found ways to buy the candy for cheap and sell for a profit. The business became so profitable that one of his brothers was called to the principal's office because it almost shut down the other school's fundraising efforts. From then on he would continue to build his professional skills and become a successful entrepreneur.

Anthony later moved to Atlanta, GA, started his own successful business and provided for his wonderful family. Anthony being so good with his words always had a way with the ladies he was a natural charmer. God truly has a true sense of humor because ironically, along with 3 sons he has 8 daughters.

Family was most important to Anthony. He was a good son-he adored his mother with all his heart and soul. He was a loving father, supportive brother, fun uncle and grandpa and remarkable nephew. He was always a hardworking and driven man. He never hesitated to go out of his way to assist anyone that he could and never missed the opportunity to put a smile on the faces of those whom he encountered.

He is survived by his loving Mother Geneva McCray. His siblings Marie Jordan-Myers, Stacy Ketter (Micah), Walter McCray (Carla), Kevin McCray, Curtis Wilson, Katrina Williams Denson, Ernest Williams, and Ladonna Greene. His children Imani, Imari, Imanuel, Iman, Kaziya, Keara, Olufemi, Chinyere, Ishmeil, Yanika, Akebo, and grand kids, neices, nephews, and cousins. .His Partner and Beloved Friend Nora Adrien

“ My deepest condolences to the family. Mr Anthony was a very special kind of man. Always thinking of others and putting them first. I work at Gwinnett Place Honda and always looked forward to seeing Mr Anthony when he would come in to clean the office or just to visit and say hello. He became more than just the cleaning man. He was a friend who always had a smile on his face and a kind word to lift your spirit if you we're going thru a tough time. He will be missed by so many people. Rest In Peace sweet friend 🙏
