

Mr. Anthony Tolbert

May 14, 1967 - April 17, 2023

On April 17, 2023, heaven touched earth and after a job well done, Anthony Tolbert of Lilburn, GA, went home to be with the Lord. Anthony accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior early in adulthood. By God's grace, his caring heart for others was reflected in his life, as it was in death, by being an organ and tissue donor.

Anthony was the third child born to Rosie and George Tolbert on May 14, 1967, in The Bronx, New York. He moved to Atlanta in 1989, but stayed true to his roots as everyone knew him as "Tony from the Bronx." Anthony had several careers at which he thrived: Construction Foreman, Auto Mechanic, and Service Technician.

Anthony was loving, funny and never met a stranger. He always wore a huge smile, had a contagious laugh, and a big heart. He was easy to love and a great man whose impact will be forever felt. His selfless spirit gave him the ability to sacrifice, support, forgive and cherish everyone who crossed his path. Always the life of the party, Anthony enjoyed spending time with his family, friends and adored his pets. His heart will remain ingrained in the lives of all who knew him. Once Anthony called you friend—you had a friend for life!

Anthony was preceded in death by his son, Lorenzo Jose Tolbert; brother, Rodney 'Prince' Tolbert; grandparents, George and Sarah Phillips (Maternal), Fletcher Tolbert and Alberta Turner (Paternal).

His beautiful life will forever be cherished by his children: Jeffrey Anthony Tolbert of The Bronx, NY, Monique Jackson of Norfolk, CT, Anthony Alonzo Tolbert, Brionna Jefferson, and Xavier Prince Tolbert all of Phoenix, AZ; three grandchildren, Janaé, Zell Prince and Ari L.; parents, Rosie (Eddie) Hamilton of Ocala, FL and George (Edith) Tolbert of The Bronx; brother, George Tolbert, Jr. of Fort Pierce, FL; sisters Lisa Marie (Carlos) Forde of Dacula, GA, Carolyn Tolbert of Lilburn, GA, and Giovanna Tolbert of The Bronx, NY; bonus sister, Samantha Ladson of Manhattan, NY; best friend/brother of 45 years Michael "Rockwell" Hagans of Bronx, NY, and a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, family and friends.

On behalf of the Tolbert Family, you are warmly welcomed to join us for a public 'Celebration of Life' service for our beloved, Anthony Tolbert, to share fond memories and favorite stories of a loving father, son, brother, granddad, uncle, and friend. Details, date, and location are forthcoming. Condolences can be sent to: C/O Carolyn Tolbert, 4024 Lawrenceville Hwy, Suite 17-177, Lilburn, GA 30047.

“ my heart will forever be with Anthony , for 10 years I've had the pleasure to be apart of his life and his beloved family whom i grown to love dearly Anthony brought motivation of strength to always move forward and not take life so serious but to live and enjoy everyday as if it was your last..it was comforting to always see his laughter and its uniqueness like no other .. i met him as a young lady who was broken and emotional to becoming a woman of tough skin thanks to Anthony .. we always made each other smile cry tears of laughter over the best times of our relationship.. through losing his loved ones i know how much i wanted to unconditionally love him and through pain and struggle our love grew fonder and bonded .. music always seem to be the outlet of connection that was a pleasure that we shared ill always hold on to our memories and karaoke recordings of the talent we shared .. this road and new journey without you is tough but the words you always said i cant never forget .. "was all i want is for you to be happy and live your life to the fullest with or without me and i will love you forever its me and you against the world in his own words " you are truly missed and never forgotten! you were one of a kind and there will never be another you ! May you rest in eternal heaven and peace till we meet again...i love you always and forever!!
