“ *Cousin this is cousin Pooh. I am going to miss our phone calls text messages and long hours of juicy conversation. I want to thank god for allowing us to be cousins. I am happy to say you were my girl and always well.. I posted a comment and I am not sure it posted. I love you. Rest is paradise until we see each other again. My heart is broken. “ Antoinette will be missed! Our families have been connected for over 25 years. A lover of children, she supported many single mothers by being a day care provider to their children. She will never get to hold the new addition to our family " Lily". It seems so unreal💔

Quintin & Families,
I met Antoinette on Sherman Ct.. There is where Willa Mae brought her come to when she gave birth to her. She was so loved and she was such a happy baby growing up in Liz & Buddy's house. I didn't see Antoinette blossom into a women, but I'm sure she was an amazing young woman. My prayers are with you Quintin,her kid(s) and to the Cathchings Family.
