“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Williams: May "the God of all comfort" strengthen you all as you look ahead to the fulfillment of his resurrection promise. Keep in mind... "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25. Take care and remember... "God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in distresses." ~Psalm 46:1

“ To the family of Antonio R. Williams, I'm sending my deepest sympathy to the entire family. I know the pain of losing a loved one and that it can be hard. I ask the Lord to give you strength and to heal your hearts at this difficult time. I will keep the family in my prayers.

“ Will as we called him in the military days. We were two Ga. Guys that stayed on the road between Beaufort sc and Atlanta ga. We partied we laughed and did all the things friends did. He and several of our military buddies were men in uniforms at my wedding. What a time we had. Ill always remember the special fun times we had.
Rest in peace my friend.

“ To The Family of Antonio Ramon Williams.. Please accept my sincere condolences for the lost of your loved one.. Psalms 147:3 says he heals the brokenhearted ones & he binds up their wounds .. We need comfort in many areas of life.. one of the greatest causes of grief is the loss of our loved one in death... Especially a beloved marriage mate or a child.... In times of distress, we may need comfort that soothes, & both our heart our mind, our emotions, & both our physical and spiritual heath.. Gods words acknowledge that our heart can be broken crushed Ps 51:17 .. Even in serve situations, God can bring relief to a stricken heart If we pray to him in faith...

“ To the family of
Please accept my condolences in the loss of your love one. It's very hard to bear the loss of someone so dear. Although there is little that one can say or do to take away all your pain, please know that you are in the thoughts and prayers of many. The Bible at Revelation 21:3,4 gives hope that soon God will end all suffering, pain and death. May God grant you comfort and peace at this most difficult time in your life. Psalm 55:22 says "throw your burden upon God and he will sustain you." May every loving memory of your love one be like the warming rays of sunshine help you to bring some comfort when the pain and sorrow comes.

“ Tony was and will always be remembered in our hearts as one of the most humble persons that I have ever known. His mannerism was something to be desired.
We love you Tony, but God loved you more. Family remember (John:14 1-2)
"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you."

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible, will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4).
