“ April was a joy to work with: even when you couldn't see her face, you knew there was a smile on it, because it came thru in her voice. I know she was a loving mother and wife as that love came thru when she talked of her family. Even though you are mourning her loss, please take time to celebrate the time you did have with her.

“ I loved April. More than that, I loved her spirit. We shared many intimate moments together where we laughed, cried, prayed and comforted each other. I will miss her. April loved her husband. I have never met him but because of how lovingly she spoke about him and his faith, I love him as well. She also loved Myles and Jordan. I can still hear her call each of their names as only she could. God is good. We may not understand but he has the plan. His peace to the April Williams family is my prayer.
