“ *What all can I say besides I loved my grandma..
Grandma.*

You will be surely missed by me and everyone else. I have so many memories of you and I can honestly say that none of them are bad. I just remember you smiling all the time, and no matter how bad you felt, you trusted the lord to make all the decisions for you for 100 years. I will always remember you and continue to look at the pictures and show my kids, and let them know how much you meant to me. We may grieve for awhile, but that's only because we know, we will see you again one day saying "welcome home"

-Your great grandchild- as you called me MARY

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I extend condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Helm. Keep in mind; the "God of all comfort" promises: "Your dead will live.... They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Joshua 23:14).

“ It is hard when we loss someone in death, but we do have the God of all comfort by our side to help us when we need him.

and may this scripture comfort this family during this time (Rev. 21:4) And he will wipe out every tear from eyes, and death will be no more , neither will mourning nor outcry

nor pain be anymore. the former things have passed away
