“ To the Family: May the God of all comfort grant you peace as you keep in mind the words recorded at 1 John 4:9.... God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him. Jesus himself promises... I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. ~John 11:25. Remember... God invites us to draw close to him (in prayer) and he will draw close to you. (James 4:8).

“ In reading the recent obituaries, I came across that of your loved one. I would like to express my deepest condolences to your family. I am sending this message to share some encouraging bible thoughts that can help at a time such as this. Only from the word of God can we find real comfort. In particular the scripture found at Revelation 21:4 which says, “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” Philippians 4:7 assures you that you can endure when, “the peace of God that excels all thought guard your hearts and mental powers.” I hope this will ease your pain and again I'm so sorry for your loss. Please feel free to contact me.

“ I wanted to express my sincere condolences to the Waller family. I am very sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death leaves a deep pain in our hearts that will never be forgotten. However, there is comfort that can be found in God's Word, the Bible, as it talks about God's promise of a resurrection hope. Yes, your loved one, Archie, has the hope of being brought back to life to live on a Paradise earth in perfect conditions. ~Acts 24:15, Revelation 21:4, John 11:25. My thoughts and prayers are with the Waller family at this time.
