“ My deepest condolences to Arius’s family and friends. I know that I am late in posting this but I only found out recently. I met Arius when we lived in Jersey City. For a time he and I were almost inseparable. We talked about family, about our lives, about our future. I have soooo many beautiful memories of this man. I thank God for the times I spent in his company and I pray him peace. He and I lost touch about a yr after I left Jersey City. I love you my friend and I am missing you beyond belief. I will never forget you. And I will look for u when my time comes and God calls me home.

To his family, know that your Arius was like family to me. I’m sorry that we never met but my love and prays go out to you.

Love you always Arius, we always made each other smile and laugh. I can’t believe that I can’t talk to u and see you in person anymore. U have cemented a place in my heart. 💋 ❤️

Best friends forever,
Deshawn.

“ Arius as you sleep in peace may your family find comfort in knowing that you are resting and surrounded by angels. May God continue to bless the family granting them peace, knowledge and understanding for their unexpected loss. Gone too soon but ever to be forgotten - Arius' infectious smile, warm gentle personality, his groovy dancing and his crazy sense of humor! We will miss you.

Love always

“ I met Arius (Taylor) a couple years ago through a mutual Friend. He was so nice and gentle from the start. Every moment I spent with him was precious and his smile made my day better. I'm so shocked by this news and it definitely hurts. I speak peace over his Family hearts and minds. May God comfort your heart's like only he can.

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Arius. I can't find the words to describe what I'm feeling at this moment. What I will say is that my memories of him and our times spent together will forever be in my heart . Training me , dancing with me, laughing and enjoying life. Rest peacefully my friend and our song will forever play in my memories.
