“ My fondest memory of Artez was when he was a very little boy. Bridget would bring him to revivals at Berean with his favorite blanket. Artez laid quietly during service. He was so peaceful and mannerable even as a toddler, But it was the smile for me. He had the most innocent yet charming smile I have ever seen. Rest in Paradise young man. You deserve it. May God continue to comfort the family from this day forward.

“ *The tragic passing of Artez gave me deep pain. I taught this sweet young man two semesters. He is one of tho that you never forget. His sweet smile will forever be indelibly printed on my mind. He was always so respectful Praying for all of you that you will experience the God of all comfort.

Our deepest condolences to Artez Benton and hus family. I taught this young man at LIGHT OF THE CHRISTIAN ACADEMY. A place where our legacy was built on family, friends and love. ARTEZ had a beautiful smile and was such a blessing to teach. I will always remember that smile. We thought his name was so unique at the time therefore, we called him by his full name. "Smiling " on behalf of the Weldon family and the entire LIGHT OF THE WORLD FAMILY, May God continue to bless you all and give you a peace that surpasses all understanding.
