

Arthur Jerome King

October 17, 1951 - June 19, 2026

Arthur Jerome King, a beloved father, dedicated repairman, and proud veteran, passed away peacefully on Friday, June 19th, 2026, at the age of 74. Born in Atlanta, Georgia, on Wednesday, October 17th, 1951, Arthur spent his life serving his community and country with integrity and dedication.

Arthur made his home in Decatur, Georgia, where he became a cherished member of the community. His career as a repairman spanned several decades at ATT in Atlanta, where he was renowned for his skill, work ethic, and ability to find innovative solutions. His commitment to his work earned him the respect and admiration of both colleagues and clients alike.

Before embarking on his civilian career, Arthur served his country honorably as a member of the United States Army. His service instilled in him values of discipline, strength, and resilience, which he carried with him throughout his life.

Arthur is survived by his loving daughter, Jalandria King, who brought immense joy to his life and will continue his legacy of kindness and generosity. He was preceded in death by his parents, Frank R. King and Sallie Mae King, who undoubtedly welcomed him with open arms.

Arthur's life will be celebrated by those who knew him as a hard-working individual who always had a ready smile and a helping hand. Arrangements are being handled by Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Homes & Crematory - South Dekalb, where friends and family are invited to gather and remember the remarkable life of Arthur Jerome King.
