“ You and your family members have my deepest sympathy for your loss. Please know that our heavenly father, Jehovah brings comfort to all who have fallen asleep in death with the hope of the resurrection. And how we look forward to the day when the last enemy, death, “is to be brought to nothing”! (1 Corinthians 15:26) Confidence in Jehovah’s resurrection promise brings us comfort and a sure hope for the future. Visit us at www.jw.org for more spiritual comfort.

“ I offer heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Johnson. Please keep in mind: “God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him.” (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in restoring life to ones who fall asleep in death when he said: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” (John 11:25). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Revelation 21:3-5)

“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Mrs Artie Johnson. No matter who we are, losing a loved one in death is painful. May you find comfort in the God of all Comfort during this difficult time. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)

I'm sure you have many fond memories of Mrs. Johnson. The Almighty God has promised us a time when we will be able to spend time with our loved ones and not have to worry about death because the "last enemy death will be brought to nothing."

(1 Corinthians 15:26)

Our loving God has provided a hope of the resurrection for our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29)

I hope you find these scriptural thoughts uplifting. If you would like to learn more about God's wonderful promises, visit a free Bible education website, www.jw.org. Also if you have any questions, feel free to contact me at lvtsew@gmail.com.

“ Dear Family and Friends: It is always difficult to see or hear about any person passing away.

We know that many will offer comfort and encouragement to you. We need this, it really helps us to make it to the next day. But we also need to remember God's promise to mankind.

That soon he will remove sickness and death away from the earth (Rev. 21:4). He has told us through his word the Bible, that death is an enemy to him and to the human family (1 Cor. 15;25-26). We will also have the opportunity to be reunited with our loved ones who have passed away, as promised at John 5:28,29. This is God's encouragement to you, the family and friends. My condolences.
