“Mary & Family, May the love of your friends and family surround you and fill your heart as you journey down this new road. I know that the road ahead will bring you many ups and downs but know that Asa's love and presence will always be with you. There will come a day when your tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance; your heart will begin to heal itself; grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy and you will hear the whisper of hope. There will come a day when you will welcome and treasure the tears of remembrance. When peace, like a river, attends my way, when sorrows like sea billows roll; whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say, It is well, it is well, with my soul; It is well with Asa's soul. My prayers are to God that He will comfort and strengthen you now and the days ahead. Rev. Rachel Taylor Satterfield & Mr. & Mrs. Antoine Satterfield

“Asa's family, your cousins in Virginia (Gugertha's children), sends much love to you as you experience this transitional time. Our prayer is that God will grant each of you peace and comfort as only He can provide. We know that our sovereign God knows just what we need and He will provide all that we need, when we need it. We are thankful for all the time we spent together over the years, and especially in November '2012. But most of all we are thankful for Asa's choice to make Jesus Christ Lord and Savior or his life. It is for this we have joy in our hearts and can rejoice because we know that he is certainly now resting in peace. God bless and keep each of you in His care. Sincerely, Laura, Gracie, George (Bud), Joyce (Sister), Rachel, and Elizabeth (Beth)

“ My wife and I join our children in sending our sincere condolences to your family. We share many warm memories of our children growing up in the first home we purchased, with his assistance, in 1978. His professionalism was superb, but his friendship proved to be so much greater. Though we now reside in Tennessee, we have never forgotten Asa. We know you will miss him and we pray that as time turns your grief to memory, that the memories will become a treasure. Sincerely, John and Charlotta Ashworth, Children-Ralph, Glen, Leslie and James
