“ It saddens my heart when such a young person like Ashlee losing life. My sincere condolences to the family. May you find comfort in the Almighty God that promises that our loved ones will rise again and when death will be no more. (Isaiah 26:19 1Cor 15:25,26 ) As you reflect on this wonderful promise for the future, may your fond memories of Ashlee bring you joy.

So sorry to hear about Ashlee. My granddaughter Natarshsa and Ashlee were childhood friends and use to ride their bikes up and down Roehrer Avenue in Buffalo New York. They enjoyed each others company very much. Ashlee always had a beautiful spirit and a smile on her face. May her spirit continue to Rest in Peace the Fields in the Arms of Jesus. May God Bless her Family. Hattie A Martin Mays, Buffalo, NY

“ The Sting of Death is sharp and painful. hopefully the words at Isa. 25:8, 9: will bring you some comfort in your time of loss “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’”

“ I extend condolences to you all. The "God of all comfort" has made a loving provision to restore life to ones who fall asleep in death..."He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9).
Jesus himself said..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25)
