“...In as much as you have done it to the least of thy brethren, you have done it unto me.” Matt 25:40. Audrey was a giving person, who I knew to be generous to the poor in spirit, the hungry, and helpless. I will never forget her giving her jacket to a person lying on the street when she was walking to her workplace. She was talking to me on the phone, when she stopped. She was more than a friend, she was a Sister, no matter what we went through. I will miss and look forward to seeing her again. Cherish those memories, Oliver and Family! ❤️ Shelia

“ Audrey Darlene was a light for the 64 years I've known her. There are plenty of memories that we shared and now that she isn't physically here for us to make more memories, she will always live in my heart. You are our younger sister and we will always love you. Your light will never dim in our hearts. Love you forever Patricia Lindo and Cheryl Harrison.
