“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Audwin Nettles. Losing a loved one in death is painful. It is such times like this that we should look to the Almighty God for comfort. Psalm 34:18 says, "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit."

May your reflection on this promise and your many fond memories of Audwin give you the strength you need to endure this difficult time. .

“ Corey and I can't stop talking about Dale. Of all our memories what sticks out was his consistent teaching. He did it both formally and informally. He did it about food, manhood, anything Cajun, but always about God. I can't remember ever having a conversation with him and he did not encourage personal devotions with the Lord. He has many other legacies. But for us, he was a man of strong faith. We miss you already. Corey, Tina and Daniel Taylor

“ I just keep coming back here because this is just totally unbelievable. You always were such a breath of fresh air and your laughter was contagious. I will always remember the days of old. Our families connect it instantaneously! Nobody could tell us we weren't related! I will truly miss your inboxes and always encouraging me and calling me your little sister. To the family be blessed and stay strong . May God continue to comfort you in the days ahead

“I don't even know where to begin to say goodbye. Knowing that I won't run into you and Richard, together, somewhere, ever again, is hard to accept, to even comprehend. I've cherished that simple action since we all first met on Southern's campus and for almost 40 years, just knowing that I'd see you two somewhere, together, at some point, laughing and enjoying each other's friendship and company. The last time I saw you, I got a big bear hug from you, just as I've gotten each time I saw you, with a smile that could melt anyone's heart. That has never changed and that is the way I want to remember you, Dale. I am going to truly miss you. I will continue to remember you as you always were, my Friend.
To the Nettles Family, my heart and prayers are with you, with deepest sympathy. Know that he was a friend and loved dearly by those of us that called him Friend. I pray for God's Hand to be upon you all for strength and protection.
Forever, in my heart and prayers.

“ My heart is heavy with the loss of my friend. A man of character and conviction. I will always remember, how Dale greeted people with a big smile, a strong handshake, a brotherly hug, and words that made you smile. My sympathy and prayers are with your wife and family during this time of loss. God will give them strength and peace to move forward.
