“ A part of the reason I loved Avery so much is because we shared alot in humor. I was able to to laugh and make jokes without fear of rejection or judgement whenever I was with Avery. I was always told that I had a 'weird' or 'dark' sense of humor, but Avery shared that bond when it came laughing. We could sit up and listen to podcasts and watch hilarious videos on YouTube and cackle for hours. Sometimes we laughed so hard I had to use my inhaler to stop my weezing and that would make him laugh even harder, but he always asked me if I was okay after. It's been over 2 years and it still hurts so much. Ever since then I started to question if I was doing enough. If I passed tomorrow, would I regret anything? Did I do as much as I can? I never stopped to thank you though. The only thing I regret is nit taking advantage of the time I could have had with him. I hate that I didn't talk to him more. I hate that I didn't support him enough. I hate that there was so much he wanted to do amd I wasn't there to lend him a hand. This is my regret. Some days I don't think about him, and some days that all I do. I feel bad on the days I don't, but I'm happy to say that when I do think about him now it's not only tears or sorrow that I feel. I can laugh and recall more memories I shared with him. Memories I thought I was going to lose or already lost because I didn't take more videos or pictures of. I still have them and it makes me so happy to know that I am who I am today because you. 8 years. I've known him for 8 years. Thank you, Avery. Thank you so much. I love you. I miss you so much. He told me that he hated to say goodbye because it was like he would never see me again. So, I'll see you later, Avery.

“ My name is Santana Avery was one of the best people I knew. I met him in 8th grade and we became friends. It is so sad to know that someone took him from this world. He was so positive and proud and just an amazing human being. I regret many things but one thing I will always regret is not hugging him tighter and letting him know that he was an amazing friend. Even though we didn't talk often I miss him so much.

“ Avery, my love. I know you are with the angels, Holy Spirit, and ancestors because we always said you were an old soulish spirit. Lionel Richie said it best for me: "I long to see the sunlight in your hair and tell you time & time again how much I care. Sometimes I feel my heart will overflow. Hello. I've just got to let you know. 'Cause I wonder where you are and I wonder what you do. Are you somewhere feeling lonely or is someone loving you." You are so awfully truly missed by so many, many people who loved & cherished you. Don't know if I'll ever recover from this heartache. Your grandma in love and peace, Feefa.

“ Sympathy In Memoriam

To: India Vincent and Sedrick Nowlin and Families

Today the Mitchell family expresses our deepest sympathy in the passing of your beloved Avery Darnell Nowlin, son, brother, grandson, great-grandson, nephew, and cousin. Only in hours like this do we know in fullest measure the consolation of God's promise:

“ Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

John 11:25-26

“ It is unimaginable that you are not here. The world lost a beautiful spirit. I knew from the time you were born (2 months early) that you would be speical. When I would tell you I love you, you always responded "I love You More". I would give anything to hear you say that again. The gigantic hole in my heart will be filled with memories and the love you gave. I'm gonna miss not seeing that smile grandson and hearing the voice of much wisdom. You left to soon, God has something greater for you. Avery smile forever.

“ Avery was one of my students. It broke my heart when I heard that he had passed. He was a creative, kind, and warm man. He always made me feel special as his former teacher. I will talking with him about his new stories and adventures. Truly devastated by his passing.

“ Avery was one of the kindest men I've met. He always helped out when asked with a great attitude. He went out of his way to connect with customers and make others laugh. He was one of my best hires and one of my favorite people to work with. I'll miss you Avery.

“ I spent the 4th of July in Georgia with My Family! We cooked out at My Aunt Miriam’s home. It was a great time! Cousin Avery had to work while we were down but My Daughter Ciarra and I were able to spend time with him! He vibed so well with her: Golden!! Avery was a delight! He was a well mannered all around gentleman! The last thing that he said to me was let’s not make this the last time doing this! I replied it won’t! Avery, I LOVE YOU COUSIN!! We have your Mother and your GrandMother during this most difficult time!!

“ I send my condolences to the Nowlin family, Avery and I were in drama club/anime club and I believe another club back in high school. He was super funny, caring, understanding and unique to the point he always had a crowd near him. I wish I got to hang more around him after high school. I hope you’re still enjoying my butterfly knife even in paradise avery! rest in paradise !

“ Avery,

I will always, Always, ALWAYS love you and who you became. You were true to your upbringing, which guided you to do things the right way, and your way. Without question you proceeded along the right path, which could have only led to greatness. Many who knew you, KNEW...

You were humorous;

You were an influencer;

You were fun-loving;

You were thoughtful;

You were productive;

You moved people;

You worked on your dreams (a little everyday); and

You were special.

Your character and personality have positively influenced so many of your peers. Our memory of you will continue as that of a young and vibrant gentleman... full of ideas and one who fulfilled the lives of people around him.

Speaking on behalf of family, friends, acquaintances, and community, we could not have been prouder of you!

Love,

Uncle David

“ Dear Nowlin Family,

My name is Kayla. I met Avery in 7th grade. I was a bit of a mess honestly but he saw the best in me and became good friends. I went to middle and high school with Avery. We shared many classes. Throughout that time he was very supportive and protective of me. Always acting like an older brother making sure I was ok. We were in an anime club together and my uncle was his acting teacher in the drama club. We were very close friends and I graduated high school with him. He even helped me get a job at Starbucks with him. He was always full of energy and even jumped into his mom's car window when she got him after work. I often came over to his grandmother's house to hang out with him. We always had the best time together. We called each other Buddy. No one really understood our bond. We were silly, weird, theatrical, and couldn't stay away from each other. We were always helping each other with our passions even though I hadn't figured out mine. Avery wanted to make these amazing jewelry pieces and was obsessed with the Sunflower song from an animated spiderman movie. We would sing and dance at work to Africa by Toto, and laugh hysterically at customers for their weird orders and questions. He was sweet, kind, and gentle. He was always there for me when I needed him lifting me up everytime I fell. Encouraging me to be myself no matter how weird. We cared so much for each other. And as time went on we began to love each other. Our friendship and bond meant the world to us. Though we didn't become a couple to preserve our friendship, we loved each other very much. Even when we began to grow apart he was always there. I will always care, love, and cherish him and our time together. What happened to him was not fair and not right. I hope he finds justice and peace. He will be loved and missed always. Avery was my friend, my brother, and my Buddy. He will never ever be forgotten.

*Sincerely with love,
Kayla*

“ You were the most creative person (always trying an idea) , trendsetter, funniest person I knew. He loved the passion tea from our job, taught me about pinecone jewelry and showed me how to express love to my family. I know you're in Heaven getting the best bass lessons from your idol (Jimi Hendrix) and skateboarding with your green tea Arizona. You are so loved Avery❤️
