“ Always ready to do her best,
With a heart so true and tender, She devoted her life to those she loved, And those she loved remember. From all of the residents at Fellowship. Now two best friends can unite once again

“ *It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments,
the smiles, the laughter.
And although it may seem hard right now, of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again.*

Mama LaFleur will be truly missed here at Fellowship Assistant Living such a blessing she was to my heart until we met again love you Mama LaFleur

“ *I offer sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. LaFleur.
When loved ones fall asleep in death, we can call to mind that "God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily to be found during distresses." ~Psalm 46:1. God's Word promises: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus stated his role in God's loving provision to raise up dead ones: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." John 11:25*

“ To the Family and Friends, Though I know that this is a difficult time for you my hope is that when the time is right for it, you might allow yourself to be comforted by the hope found in God's inspired word the Bible. John 5:28,29 and Rev 21:3,4. These give hope of both a future resurrection and the complete elimination of death, pain and mourning to be accomplished under Jesus' Kingdom rule. (1Cor 15:24-26) We have this and much more to look forward to. “ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.
