“Ayana and I went to the same high school, but we grew close in college while we attended Georgia Perimeter College together. Those first two years wouldn't have been the same without her, we scheduled our classes to end at the same time, we worked easy on-campus jobs close to each other so we can chat while working and plan our spring break trips. She was the first friend I went to PCB with and we had a blast. Ayana was a beautiful and confident woman who went after what she wanted. She was smart, a great friend, and so supportive of her true friends. I loved telling people that I had a friend with the same first and middle name as me, that was such a special thing that bonded us for life. I am so sad that we lost a beautiful soul like hers so soon; she had so much life to live and so much creative energy to put into the world. May she rest in eternal love and peace. I am praying for her family and friends. Love you always, Ayana Nia Thomas and Sincerely yours, Ayana Nia Sears.
