“ Ayanna, you were my student at MZHS for just a few weeks from November to December 2018. Your classmates and teachers fell completely and utterly in love with you during that all too brief time we had together. Your gorgeous smile and loving spirit charmed everyone and you immediately became ours. After listening to your peers' conversations for a few weeks, one day you said, "Knock, knock." We were surprised but replied, "Who's there?" Then, you said, "Cameron." We said, "Cameron who?" You then uttered the class' favorite line--"Cameron, GO HOME!" We all laughed like crazy with you and will always treasure that memory. We love you dearly and will miss you so much. You will always be our beautiful ranch dressing girl. God is holding you now in the palm of his Hand and you are at peace. May God bless your family.

Love Always,

Ms. A and your MZHS Family

“ To Ken & Churnell

I've only known you for a short while, yet it feels like a life time. Last year you allowed me to be a part of your special day. It was here that I was first introduced to your beautiful daughter Ayanna. During the reception Ayanna wanted to make a speech and her grandmother tried to interrupt her but she wasn't having none of it. Her fiery spirit shone through. The tribute she paid to her parents was heart felt and had us all wiping our eyes. The loss of your daughter is hard to bear. It remember you had 20 glorious years with her that you can look back on and draw comfort from. I just want to say Ayanna you touch my heart go safe on your final journey.

“ "Beauty of Your Smile"

I'm sure she knew exactly how I felt as I reflect back on it now; but a beautiful smile of acknowledgement was all she ever allowed. Im not sure which I which I adored most her beauty or her smile.

*Ayanna you can never be more than a thought apart.
For as long as I have memory, you will always be in my heart.*

All my love Edwina
