“ You'll most definitely be missed here with us. But you had bigger and better places to go. I miss you so much already i'm filled with so much grief. I only wish i could've spent that one last moment with you. I will love you always, Cangela and step-daughter Tangela “ Azariah my sweetheart... You were a great man! Always ready to help someone in need. A friend to everyone you met. The Lord was always first priority in your life. You always said I was the apple of your eye, your sunshine, your queen..... but you have been my sunshine for many many years and now my world seems grey without you! I love you to forever and back!!! #MissingYou #BrokenHearted
