“ Dear Paschal Family, Don't we parents love to think Of our kids having opportunity To live life fully and see the world In peace, health, and real security? No matter their age, they ever remain The child that laughed, whose tears we dried We deflected their hurt and shared their joy. Yet we can't do it all, so we're not satisfied. What will bring satisfaction to all humankind Is God's kingdom embracing from Heaven's domain It brings perfect life to those living then Earth's then a real home, a Paradise regained. Family and dear friends once lost to us Raised again to life in vibrant health With trustworthy neighbors all wanting to do good Each considering his neighbor and not just himself See Maya grown and perfect in a cute little home Or awaiting family bearing succulent dishes In reverse your child welcomes you back to life A reunion's happy tears, God grants our best wishes Sympathies,
