“ Barbara Bravo, or Chi-Chi as she was called by her families and friends, was a very special lady, my sister-in-law, she was loving, kind and generous, with a heart of gold

She was a classy lady, you could tell not only by the way she dressed, but by the way she spoke.

Barbara along with her husband, my brother Harold spent time with me and my family in London a few years ago. We spent a lovely time together sightseeing, shopping, visiting the famous Brixton market, but best of all, going shopping in some of London famous big stores, Harrods, Selfridges, John Lewis to name but a few. Her greatest moment was walking arm in arm with me through those luxurious stores enjoying every minute, especially spraying the perfumes, best of all was when she purchased a Harrods brand bag.

I was grateful and very lucky to have spent time with Barbara recently in October/November.

I saw her laughter as well sat at the dining table, there were times she just wanted to sleep, she would let you know, she had, had enough to eat.

She would smile as we kinda chatted together. We understood each other very well.

She love music and dancing, and when Harold, put on certain record that she remembered, she would sing and did her dance moving her hands, head and shoulders.

I thank God that I was blessed to have spent those precious few weeks with her.

I was bless to have a sister in law as special as Barbara (Chi-Chi). I will forever treasure the memories of each and every day I spent with her

Loved dearly.

May her soul rest in eternal peace.

Heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Barbara Bravo.

Barbara, Chichi, as she was fondly called by her family and friends, was a very good-natured, loving and generous person. She always had a smile and was willing to give a listening ear, or offer help when needed.

She'll be greatly missed; she meant a lot to so many people. Her memory lives on in the love she gave so freely and we're comforted by the good times we had with her. Those memories will be highly cherished. I pray eternal rest for her soul. 🙏
