“ I remember Ms. Barbara Cannon when I worked at the Lawrenceville Housing Authority. She was my play grandmother. We ate lunch together at various places in Lawrenceville. I remember one Chinese restaurant on GA Hwy 20, in particular where she ordered her adult beverage and her lemonade and tea mixed. She was very active and participated with me on the Volunteer Program for resident food boxes. Always spry and upbeat. We had a long talk in February as she told me she was ill. My phone was stolen; I did not have her number written down and found out she has passed. To Theresa (She loved you, the grandkids and talked about you all, every time I saw her. I truly miss her and if you need to talk, my temporary number is 770-755-4491. I love you Ms. Barbara G. Carter Cannon. R.I.P

“ The Sting of Death is sharp and painful. hopefully the words at Isa. 25:8, 9: will bring you some comfort in your time of loss “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’”

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God made a loving provision to restore life to dead ones... "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~ 1 John 4:9. Jesus confirmed his role in the resurrection when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~ John 11:25.
