

Ms. Barbara Ann Capheart

June 6, 1940 - May 25, 2024

Barbara Ann Capheart, age 83, of Atlanta, GA, passed away quietly on Saturday evening, May 25, 2024, of natural causes. She was a much-loved mother, grandmother, sister, loyal friend, and neighbor. Yet, family was always her first priority. The baby girl of Hattie (Pearl) Johnson and Freemon Johnson. Barbara was born on June 6, 1940, in Atlanta, Georgia. She graduated from the historic Howard High School. She then met and married Ex-Husband, King Capheart in 1969. Where they traveled through the country while King was in the military for 18 years. Barbara is survived by her daughter, Cheryl Wilcox; a son, Dexter Johnson; four grandchildren: Mark Harris, Nickia Harris, Barbara Johnson, and Eddie Johnson, four great grandchildren, and nieces and nephews, who all loved her dearly. She was predeceased by her older brothers Robert Johnson and Melvin Johnson as well as predeceased by her older sisters Maudestine Johnson and Juanita Reed.

Barbara began working with General Motors in the Consumer Products Division, working the assembly line in 1976. After 25 years she finally retired from General Motors. Later, deciding to try something different, Barbara went back to school to receive her cosmetology License. She was grateful for her full life, loving family, and all her many blessings.

Her gratitude showed in many ways, especially in the love and kindness she spread to everyone she met. She will be missed by all who crossed her path but remembered and admired for her positive outlook on life. Her cup was always full, and her quick wit and sense of humor invariably carried the day.
