“ To the Family & Friends of Ms. Carson:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. I offer condolences to you all as you experience this sadness. May God's loving resurrection provision give you peace as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). We can put complete faith in God's Word...He cares for you and always keeps his promises!

"God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." (Psalm 46:1)

“ I offer sincere condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Carson. Please keep in mind... "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). May "the God of all comfort" continue to strengthen you all now and in the days ahead.

“ "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." (John 14:1). Jesus spoke those words to help us gain comfort as we consider God's loving resurrection promise. God's Word assures us: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19).
