I am so sorry I am unable to be there physically. My thoughts & prayers are with you all. While lived in Georgia for 10 years Barbara was like a sister, even though we did not spend a lot of time together. That smile will live for ever in my memory & heart. As well as everything about here.

“ *Venson & Miles,
I am so upset about Neicy's passing.
I am sure you know what a truly wonderful woman she is. Her voice is like a song, that when she spoke you found yourself hanging on to every word. Her smile was so beautiful it could make one feel better and could make one smile too. Her love and support for her husband, children, family and friends was beautiful and genuine !
She was truly a positive force and a reminder of God's love for us all!
I pray you can feel my heart felt condolences, and pray that Neicy's love surrounds and protects both you and Miles wherever you go and in everything you do ! ! !
With the eternal love of Jesus Christ ✝,

“ When my son died she came to the house and was very helpful with the process. Had the pleasure of travelling to Savannah Georgia with her, as a matter of fact it was my first time meeting her and we kept in contact. This is unbelievable to imagine a world without her. I pray peace for her family, I pray the hands of the lord God aLmighty hold them individually and altogether in the mighty name of Jesus.

“ Barbara was my biggest and most positive influence when I was coaching!!! Always smiling and encouraging me to keep up the good work-naturally coaching is hard and tough at times, but Barbara made it 10 times more rewarding!!!! She let me know why GOD chose me to coach our team-because I was going to give it up- Barbara wouldn't allow that. I'm grateful for her-I won't miss her-I don't have to-she left such real and pure memories!!!
I love you-Thank You!!!

“ My sister. Every time I saw Barbara she had that big smile. We would sit after service and just talk, until they would turn the lights out in the sanctuary. But that didn't stop us, we would only slow walk to our cars and stand there and talk even longer. You always said I encouraged you, and you knew that was a ditto. We encouraged each other. My sister and friend, sleep on in the Father's bosom until we meet up again. I love you sweet sister, enjoy your rest. Thank you Venson and Miles for sharing your beautiful wife and mother with so many.

I am honored to call Barbara Kershaw my friend. Our families will always share a special bond with the Kershaw family. Barbara had a special way of communicating with the young people. My children and their friends enjoyed and benefited from their conversations and her wisdom. I truly believe that was her calling. I'm already missing my friend.

Much love

“ My sisters friend became my friend...

My sisters friend and another friend and my sister, I'll call them The Three Amigos.

I don't know how they came together. I know my sister moved to Atlanta to attend school remained in Atlanta and somewhere along the way the Three Amigos became a unit, eventually rooming together and becoming lifelong friends. We all four even had the good fun of flying to Jamaica on vacation so many years ago. Then years, later I had the great honor of living in my sister's friend's home while I worked on a project in Atlanta for several months. My sister's friend and I explored deep conversations, she loved to talk. That was because she was such a deep thinker.

My sisters friend, who was now my friend, we talked about deep stuff, sad stuff, happy stuff, stupid stuff, but mostly spiritual stuff and life stuff. I saw how she and her husband raised their two boys Andrew and Miles to grow and develop into fine young man over the years. She lost the eldest suddenly, God was in control of that, no one could have seen it (I think she did).

She had so many stories to tell. How many times did we talk about her writing books and discussed who, what, when and where, but the attack on her health prevented her from putting it in a book but it did not prevent her from being a living epistle. A living epistle constantly being read of men, who were ever learning through her life and the life lessons that she taught just by going through. We all learned through her, my sisters friend, now my friend, who had the biggest of smiles, the heartiest of laughter, the deepest hopes and the brightest of dreams that will always fill our hearts.... I love you Barb.
