

Barbara Manigault

December 19, 1940 - November 16, 2024

Barbara Jean Manigault, was born on December 19, 1940, in Lavonia, Georgia, to Warren C. and Mattie J. Washington. On Saturday, November 16, 2024, surrounded by her loving family, God called Barbara to her final resting place at the age of 83 at Piedmont Rockdale Hospital. Barbara graduated from Franklin County High School in Carnesville, Georgia. Later after graduation, Barbara moved to Atlanta, Georgia where she later met and married Richard Allen Manigault, together they were blessed with one child, Margaret (Manigault) Watson. Barbara's employment career includes, American Van Lines, Rich's Warehouse, Emory Hospital and many others over the years until she retired. During her younger years while in Lavonia, Georgia, Barbara attended and was baptized at Greater Hope Baptist Church together with her parents and siblings. She also attended Greater Bethany Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia and after moving with her daughter and son-in-law, she joined Springfield Baptist Church in Conyers, Georgia and has been a member until her death. Barbara enjoyed life to the fullest as she loved traveling, fishing, playing BINGO, and she was a serious card player! She was a devoted member of a few social clubs to include "The Soul Streakers" and "The P.O.S.S.E". Being a part of these organizations gave her the opportunity to travel all over the world. Barbara had a love for sports especially watching her favorite football team the Atlanta Falcons which she and her husband Richard, were season ticket holders to all the Atlanta Falcons games for many years.

She never missed watching an Atlanta Braves game either. And Barbara could not miss out on attending her grandson Rashaud sport games. You could hear her cheering in the stands. All of the kids and parents called her “Grandma”.

Barbara will be greeted in Heaven with open arms by her husband, Richard Allen Manigault; parents, Warren and Mattie Washington; brother, William Kayjasper Washington; sister, Carolyne A. Williams; brother-in-law, W.B. Shealer; grandparents, Bill and Hattie Mize; brother-in-law, John Henry Middleton, Sr. (Dot). Barbara leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Margaret Ann Watson (Allen “David”) of Conyers, Georgia; grandson, Rashaud Allen Ferrell, of Covington, Georgia; sister, Martha Shealer of Lavonia, Georgia; brother, James Washington of Decatur, Georgia; brother-in-law, Moses Middleton (Levon) of Moncks Corner, South Carolina; brother-in-law, Sheppard Williams of Atlanta, Georgia; sister-in-law, Hazel Washington of Gainesville, Georgia; stepchildren, Montine Manigault, Wanda Alexander, Leroy Jeffries, Rosa Cain, and Danita Anderson; special friends, Louise Barnett, Mary Grant, Millie Ramsey, and Esther Ward; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends. A special thank you goes to Rockdale Healthcare Center of Conyers, Georgia and Center Well Home Health.

“ No words can express what I am feeling, This lady was like a mother to me. She was always apart of my life. From childhood until the day she was called. May the lord guide our hearts as we lay her to rest. May her daughter and grandson be given peace during this time to heal to heaviness of the spirit we have all lost. REST WELL.

“ Ms. Barbara, even though I never met you in person, it seems like I have known you for years through the kind words and beautiful memories shared by your daughter and dear friend of mine. Your goodness, caring, wisdom and legacy of love will live on through your beautiful daughter and loving grandson Rashaud.

Sending my love and strength to Margaret and the rest of the family as you navigate this challenging time.

“ Ms. Barbara the moment I met you, your spirit touched mine. I was in GA with no immediate family but I looked at you as my mom away from home. Your sweet spirit will always be with me. I know God has an angel and you are looking down on Margaret and Rashaud smiling with great pride. Your works definitely spoke for you. Wear your crown Ms. Barbara.
