The family of our beloved, Barbara Jean Spruley, gratefully acknowledges with sincere gratitude, our family and friends for the acts of love and kindness shown during this difficult season. Your thoughtfulness has brought much comfort to our family. Ms. Spruley, requested before God called her home, she wanted to be cremated and did not want a repass. She wanted her flowers while she was here. Barbara wanted to just feel celebrated once she left. Thank you all again, and may God bring you blessing forever and always.
