“ The reality is that my friend of more than 30 years has gone home to be with the Lord. She was a wonderful friend, a prayer warrior, fierce example of a strong woman and I will miss her terribly. Very grateful to count myself as part of her life's legacy.

“ To say that I am deeply saddened by the loss of Barbara would be an understatement. I have had the immense joy and pleasure of working with her for the past 3+ years, and in that short period of time I gained a great friend. Barbara (or B-Willie, as I called her) was a force to be reckoned with, a friend that you could count on to be there to listen and offer advice, and someone who would no doubt make you laugh and smile. She always made me feel like I could accomplish anything, and was one of my biggest fans as my career has progressed. She has prayed for me. She has prayed for my kids. She has had my back. There are two things I can say for sure about Barbara - her love for the Lord was huge, but her love for her family was even bigger. To Barbara's family, I am so sorry for your loss. Thank you for sharing her with all of us, and I hope you know how much she loved you all. There is no doubt in my mind that she will continue to surround everyone with her love. Thank you for being my friend, B-Willie. I'll miss you forever, my friend.

“ Barb and I have worked together for the last 4 years and in the same department for the last year. We have laughed until we cried and cried until we laughed. She has been a rock for me during the last year when I've had a lot of loss. She called and checked on me every week always prayed for me and asked what she could do. There were some very dark, stressful times that I don't know how I would have gotten through without her friendship. Because I know her love for Jesus, I am happy for her being at the feet of the Lord right now, but my heart is broken. Fly high my friend, until we meet again.
